Re: United States v. Hall; Case No. 07 CR 406 (RJS); Request Permission to Travel to Fort Lee, New Jersey

Dear Judge Sullivan:

Clyde Hall wishes to travel, with his wife, to Fort Lee, New Jersey this Sunday to visit his sister. The Government has consented to this request. Mr. Hall's sister's address and telephone number in Fort Lee are a matter of record with the APA and pre-trial officers. Because Mr. Hall is restricted to the Southern and Eastern districts of New York, we respectfully request permission for Mr. Hall to travel to Fort Lee, New Jersey, this Sunday from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Unfortunately, because Mr. Hall just received this invitation this morning, we could not mail this request as usually required. We apologize for faxing this letter, but the request would have been mooted by first class mail. Thank you very much for your consideration with this matter.

Respectfully,

Attorney for Clyde Hall
